

NEW JERSEY FFA ASSOCIATION NOMINATING COMMITTEE
ROUND THREE - FACILITATION PRACTICUM
2006 SCENARIO LIST

1) Alumni Workshop

As a state officer, an agriculture instructor has invited you to come and make a presentation about FFA Alumni. The goal at the end of your presentation is to have persuaded the parents to join the alumni.

Rebecca or Mr. Lowe will act as the agriculture instructor and introduce the State Officer Candidate. Nom Com will assume the role as parents during this interview round.

2) Business and Industry Visit

You will be visiting Tractor Supply Company with the hopes of sparking a partnership for the New Jersey FFA Association. The business's vision, mission and goals are outlined for you. Tailor your presentation toward the CEO and upper division/end managers.

Nom Com will take on the role as the CEO and upper division/end managers.

3) Non-FFA member Workshop

You will be making a presentation to the Trivlean Middle School. The students in the school do not have any experience with or prior knowledge of FFA. Your goal once the presentation is finished is to increase registration for agricultural education courses and boost FFA membership at the local high school.

Nom Com takes on the role of middle school students.

4) Chapter Career Development Event Workshop (CDE)

Ms. Smith, an agricultural education teacher at Northern Wake FFA has contacted you about a CDE workshop for her students. She would like you to give an overview of FFA with the reasons why students should participate in CDEs, as well as discuss the events you have participated in.

Rebecca acts as Ms. Smith and introduces the candidate to the Nom Com who role-plays students.

5) Open House

You have been in contact with Mr. Case, an Agricultural Education teacher at Anytown FFA, regarding speaking at his school's Open House. He would like for you to facilitate an interactive workshop for parents covering what Agricultural Education/FFA offer students, the role that parents can play within FFA and the importance of this organization. Following your remarks, she has asked you to entertain any questions from parents.

Mr. Lowe acts as Mr. Smith and introduces the candidate to the Nom Com who role plays parents.
